Museum Presentation

MACBA is located a few minutes walk from the Rambles, Passeig de Gràcia and the Gothic Quarter. A true Barcelona icon offering 18,000 m2 right in the heart of the historic city centre, making it an ideal place for unique celebrations, surrounded by great international contemporary art.

The Museum's facilities include the Meier Building – 15,000 m2 of diaphanous wide spaces of radical modernity – and the Gothic complex of the Convent dels Àngels, a suggestive environment that is part of our historical heritage. The Museum opens onto the Plaça dels Àngels, an authentic open-air forum of activities for the people of Barcelona.

Spaces à la carte

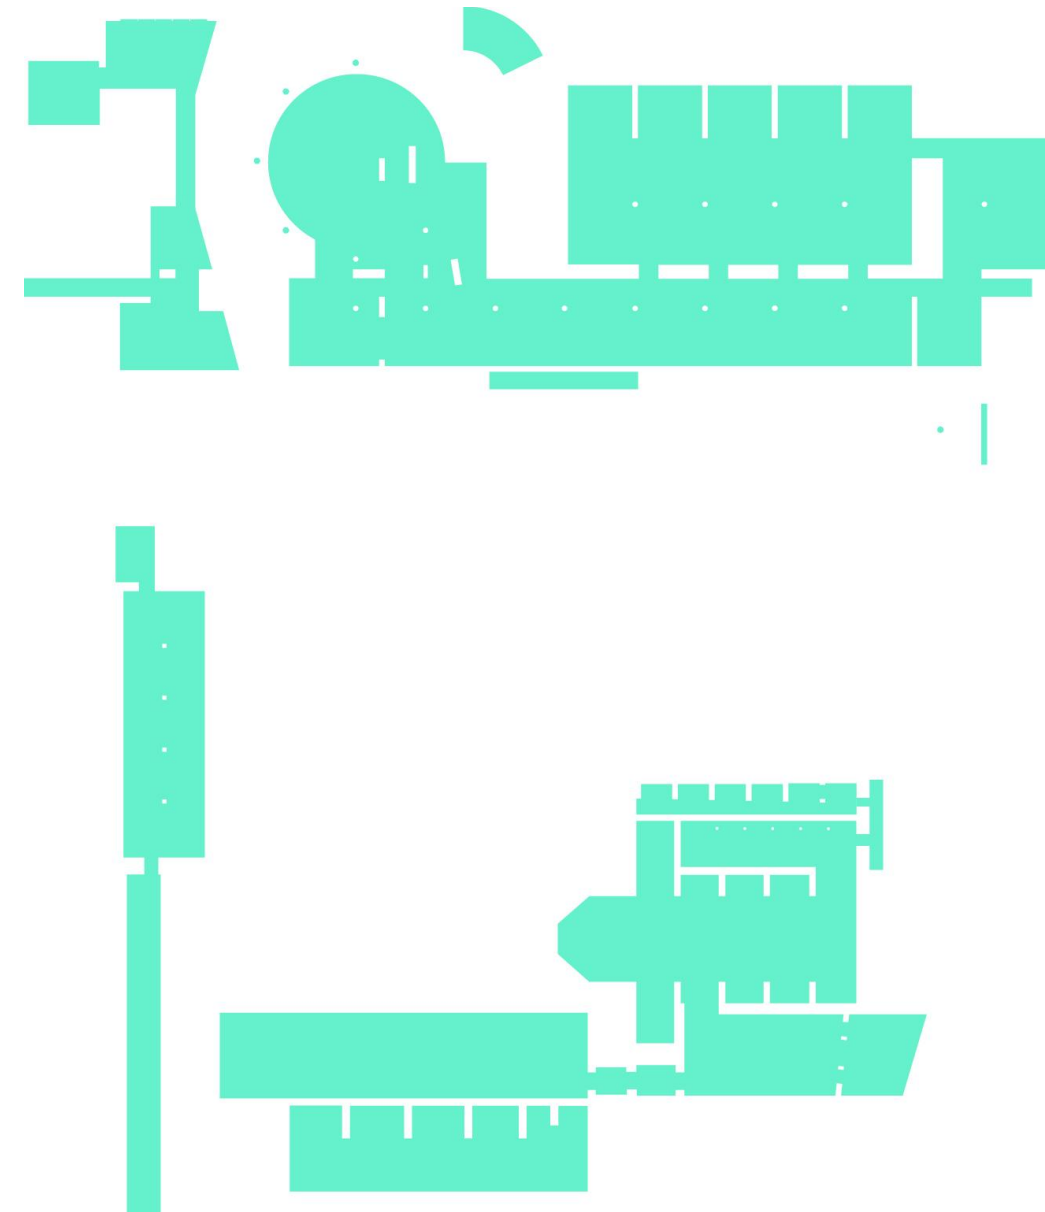

Spaces à la carte

The diversity of spaces offered by MACBA can be adapted to all manner of events and formats: cocktail parties, gala dinners, trade presentations, fashion shows, film shoots and photo sessions. Most of our spaces have direct and independent access.

Their versatility is suited to the creation of unique settings, while allowing our clients to travel in time from the Barcelona of the Gothic era to the radically contemporary city of today.

Besides taking place in exclusive surroundings, events can be complemented with Visits à la carte – private visits to the Museum exhibitions adapted to the needs of each client – as well as personalised merchandise.

MACBA can also provide functional spaces for business meetings, press conferences and conventions. We have the know-how to ensure that every event is a success for our clients.

Meier Building

Meier Building

The building, designed by Richard Meier and officially opened in 1995, is an imposing blank canvas for any event wishing to excel through its modernity and elegance. Versatile and luminous, it is the only such venue located in the city center. A radically contemporary setting at the heart of the urban past.

Meier

Convent

Atrium

The Atrium, a three-storey rectangular structure connecting all the Museum public galleries, is the most emblematic space in the Meier building. Its height allows us to enjoy the beauty of the architecture. Agora-like, majestic and slightly futuristic, it is the ideal place for cocktail parties and gala dinners, presentations, fashion shows, TV commercials, photo sessions and other large format events.

Convent dels Àngels

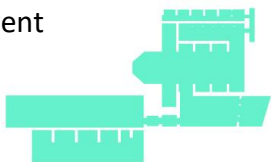

Convent Dels Angels

A sixteenth-century Gothic building with an intensely rich history, the Convent dels Àngels has been the object of a respectful conversion conducted by the architects Lluís Clotet and Ignacio Aparicio. Belonging to Barcelona's historical heritage, it is divided into several spaces, some of which can be counted among the most beautiful examples of Gothic architecture in the city.

Capella

An incursion into the past hand in hand with the strictest contemporaneity. The Gothic chapel of the Convent dels Àngels brings a secular mystery to the MACBA spaces. As part of Barcelona’s historical heritage, it welcomes the visitor with its sober beauty; a hidden treasure in the midst of the city. It provides an exclusive setting for the celebration of events requiring a special environment.

Forum

The Forum is a small Gothic nave with a magnificent vaulted ceiling and decorated corbels. Cosy and elegant, the Forum has the right dimensions for meetings, trade presentations and press conferences requiring a more intimate space. Closeness, with an upmarket atmosphere for small format celebrations.

Sala Gotica

Twined with the Capella, the Sala Gotica or Main Hall enjoys direct access to the terrace and has outside views. The lightness of the glass windows, combined with the solidity of the vaulted ceiling and stone walls, creates a hybrid space, where tradition embraces contemporaneity without losing its magic and seductive character.

Visits à la carte

Visits à la carte is a programme conceived for particular groups, companies or institutions that wish to approach contemporary art in a singular manner.

Lasting 60-90 minutes and conducted by specialised members of staff, the visits offer a unique experience for small groups and can provide added value.

At the end of the visit, refreshments can be served, and participants can take home a personalized object or free catalogue. Discover the various modalities of Visits à la carte.

Exclusive Visit

Imagine having the Museu d'Art Contemporani de Barcelona all to yourselves!

Well, that is exactly what we are offering you. Outside the museum's regular opening hours, we propose a totally personalised guided visit according to the current programme of exhibitions and your particular interests.

Conducted by an art historian or an artist, the price will depend on your requirements, such as the timetable, number of people, language and extra services. As in all Visits à la carte, the event can be complemented with a refreshment or the possibility of taking home a personalised artistic object as a souvenir.

Visits to the current exhibitions

Visit the current exhibitions of your choice with an expert who will explain their history and details. Throughout these unique itineraries the conflicts and passions hidden behind the work are revealed, the links between art and music, film and theatre are explored, and we delve deeper into artists or themes that are of particular interest to the viewer. This itinerary opens the doors to art, but the keys are chosen by the visitor themselves.

At the end of the visit, you could have a glass of wine on our private terrace on Level 1, a privileged viewpoint over Plaça dels Àngels, ideally placed for enjoying the Barcelona open-air atmosphere. You may also wish to offer the participants a catalogue of the MACBA Collection as a souvenir of the experience.*

Number of people/group: 25

Duration of the visit: 60-90 min

Languages: Catalan, Spanish and English

Availability: Weekdays from 11 am to 7.30 pm (except Tuesdays); Saturdays from 10 am to 8 pm; Sundays and public holidays from 10 am to 3 pm. Check the availability previously (open and/or closed museum).

The price of the drink, catalogue or personalized artistic object is not included and will be calculated according to your requirements*

Visits to the Collection

We invite you to learn more about the MACBA Collection with a visit to the current exhibition. We will explain how the museum works, the process of buying art and the people who are involved in the conservation of the Collection, among other aspects.

At the end of the visit, you could have a glass of wine on our private terrace on Level 1, a privileged viewpoint over Plaça dels Àngels, ideally placed for enjoying the Barcelona open-air atmosphere. You may also wish to offer the participants a catalogue of the MACBA Collection as a souvenir of the experience.*
